College of Education Chopda organized outreach programs to the community where students are involved in education, health awareness, current issues, women's empowerment, environmental protection etc.

❖ Awareness Programs and Meetings:

Students are involved in environmental protection, women's health, etc. public health awareness programs.

❖ "Literacy/ Education" service under community work:

Some students worked to educate the poor. The students worked to teach the children around the campus. The idea behind this is to reach and educate the broadest youth audience with the help of our students. This was not very effective during the epidemic, when children had problems with online learning and our students were teaching children to use new learning tools such as cell phones for learning.

❖ Nukkad-Natak/Street Play

Nukkad-Natak/ Street Play are part of the Indian tradition. The idea of the game is to present the social and political message and build the consensus of the masses in a completely different style.

❖ Research on Social Issues:

In order to influence social change, it is important to hear the public's views on social issues. For this purpose, students participated in a competition and conducted an online survey to investigate their smoking habits.

❖ Importance of Food:

Plan to distribute food to poor children. Through the initiative of "Ghar Ke Bhojan Mein Hai Poshan" students were taught proper nutrition.

❖ Environmental Awareness Program:

TEI organized community sessions to celebrate World Environment Day. Under the leadership of the United Nations Environment Program (UNEP), the college organized various events to raise awareness about the importance of the environment in life. It has become the largest environmental consulting platform. Students and people are aware of the fact of "Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam". Every year's Environment Day slogan is different just like "Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam" Better Environment, Better Tomorrow. Save the planet Earth. TEI tries to focus on sustainable life in harmony with nature. TEI celebrates Environment Day to bring students together and work together to protect and improve the planet. The competition draws international, national and regional attention to the environmental problems of our time. Protecting our planet is our sole moral responsibility and the main purpose of these services.

❖ Women's Literacy:

Women's education is important for the general development of the country. It is like a powerful medicine that knows how to heal and heal the sick. Well-educated women can manage their personal and professional lives better. The physical and mental development of the child is the goal of the integrity of education. The main purpose of education is to provide students with "complete knowledge" or "diversity of knowledge". TEI is preparing a Women's Employment Program. Educated women have the skills, knowledge and confidence to be good housewives, workers and citizens. Educated women also work better at work and earn better. In fact, the return on investment in education for women tends to be greater than for men.

❖ Community Service:

The importance of community service is often overlooked. It can affect our physical and mental health and help people feel valued. The key to a healthy and happy life is to be grateful for what you do. It encourages people to volunteer or donate their time to make this happen. Community service can also create purpose and value in life and help people realize that their efforts have an impact on others. Making a donation to a charity or non-profit organization can have a positive impact on society. Students can help raise awareness for a cause, promote social justice, strengthen bonds in your community, or improve your physical and mental health. Community service is important to people of all ages. Community service helps children identify their values, gain understanding, develop relationships, and learn about their communities. Volunteering can also open the door to many career opportunities after college. For someone to grow up, they have to quit their own life and do something to help others. Community service gives people a sense of accomplishment and expands their knowledge in various fields by volunteering time and money. A person who wants to grow must first understand the importance of community service and then how to do it.

❖ Gender Sensitivity:

The first and most important aspect of gender sensitivity is being open to the thoughts and feelings of a colleague of the opposite sex. This can be a simple way to understand all their personal issues and a better understanding of gender specifics such as offensive remarks or jokes. As knowledge continues to grow and organizations are beginning to identify behavioral restrictions, the responsibility lies with the individual. More and more men and women are starting to work together in management positions, and teams will not work unless there is harmony and comfort.
