- i. History of the Institution

Chopda Education Society was formed when India was under British rule. Lokmanya Tilak and Dadasaheb Khaparde had come to Chopda to sow the seeds of nationalism in the people of Chopda.

Shri Nimdu Shamlal Seth of Chopda took inspiration from Lokmanya Tilak and Dadasaheb Khaparde and along with some people in Chopda founded Chopda Education Society and New English School on 9th January, 1918 to inculcate in people the value of education, nationalism and hard work. Along with the school he also founded Lokmanya Vyayamshala. He believed that 'sound body' is as much important with education for the national cause. Under the devoted and able guidance of the teachers Shri. Moharir, Shri. Talegaonkar, Kasarekar and the support of the landlords the school started growing up. It had 10 students at the beginning...., now it has 4000 students.

1933 was a remarkable year for Chopda Education Society, when a great patriot Shri. Maganlal Nagindas Gujarathi became the Chairman of Chopda Education Society. He was also a staunch follower of Gandhiji. He had a dynamic personality, with ideal thoughts on education and a strong decision maker. Today's status of Chopda Education Society is the fruit of long range thinking of Shri. Maganlal Nagindas Gujarathi. He was Chairman of Chopda Education Society from 1933 till his death in 1984. During this period Chopda Education Society has become a huge tree imparting education to all levels of society through its various branches.

Another patriot and a self-taught person Shri. Govardhandas Bhikaridas Gujarathi (Babaji) had also a lion's share in the progress of Chopda Education Society. He was an ideal personality following Gandhism and always ready to work for the society. Humanity, love, simple living and high thinking, Ahimsa were the principles of his life. Due to these qualities, he ruled on the heart of the people. The construction of school was under his guidance.

New English School was renamed as Pratap Vidya Mandir, Chopda in the honour of the great donar Pratap Sethji, who had donated Rs. 15000/- for the construction of the new building.

Our present Chairman Shri. Rajabhai A. Mayur, is a successful businessman having long range thinking on education and always striving to do something new for the school. He believes in trusting teachers and giving them full freedom for work. His versatile, cheerful, cooperative and strong personality makes him a most respected person.

From 1966 Shri. Vitthaldas Chhaganlal Gujarathi is attached with Chopda Education Society, Chopda. He became the President of Chopda Education Society in 2000. He is a well-known social worker in Chopda and a strong believer in physical fitness and yoga. Under his strong leadership Chopda Education Society is progressing steadily.

Now Chopda Education Society has following branches-
